

52 Reasons to Go!

1. Increase your Facebook friends.
2. Because your kids say you never take them anywhere.
3. To have something to talk about at school
4. Hang out with your friends.
5. Because you can select which panel discussion to attend
6. It's a friends' day out.
7. Because there will be lots of free stuff
8. Learn something new.
9. You can say words like "volunteerism."
10. You can brag to friends how you support needy causes
11. You can find where to volunteer
12. You can "check in" on Facebook with something good
13. Attending yearly events have to start somewhere.
14. To tell your friends you did something exciting over the weekend
15. Take your own celebrity photo.
16. You can pretend it's a Hollywood event.
17. Become a supporter of a local charity.
18. Get to know where to volunteer...Oops, the same as #11
19. Meet a fellow community service volunteer.
20. You need something to do.
21. To be part of the Atlanta scene.
22. To support Atlanta Nonprofit Organizations.
23. To network.
24. To have something to tweet about.
25. To have a great status update.
26. To expand your cultural horizons.
27. Discover the next big thing.
28. A reason to get out of the house.
29. You might find enlightenment.
30. Great place to escape
31. Good for extra credit.
32. Because you want to become a Teens Like Me intern
33. Your friend is going.
34. Don't be a Debbie Downer. Just go.
35. There is nothing good at the movies, so this is just as good.
36. Learn about people different than you.
37. Great place to escape your financial woes, except it costs money to park.
38. It is a quality family event
39. To have something to talk about at parties.
40. Because you just got a new pair of jeans.
41. Because it's a festival centered on teen issues
42. Learn who's behind those nonprofit organizations.
43. Because it's a fundraiser to support Teens
44. Every seat is free.
45. Find a place to volunteer...Did we mention this? Hint, hint
46. Your kids will think you're cool.
47. You get to see what people outside your circle look like.
48. Become more knowledgeable on teen issues
49. You can tell everybody at the office you hung out with family all day.
50. Create your own reason.
51. Jack and Jill are going.
52. It just might change your life.